30,000 Persons have Insured in the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO.

OF HARTFORD, CONN., And others are Daily Applying.

THE principle of LIFE INSURANCE has become so well demonstrated, that it is hardly necessary at this day to go into an argument in its support. Every individual who has a family or dear ones dependent upon his existence, is in fact. overlooking, if not violating, one of the most important duties of life, in not guarding them against want, and protecting them from poverty, should death deprive them of his support and assistance. On an INSURANCE POLICY, procured at a small premium, a requisite sum is seenred in case of leath, to provide them with subsistence through life. Securing such a policy not only makes life pass more pleasantly, but will bring to the death-bed the happy consolation that your wife and children will not be left destitute, or to THE COLD, CHEERLESS SYMPATHY OF AN UNCHARITA-BLE WORLD. To those whose good impulses are moved to this accomplishment for their family's future protection.

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO. as most cordially recommended for the carrying out of these desires. The Company has been in existence for FORTY EIGHT years, and now, with a Capital of over $1,500,000 00 stands as one of the solid monetary institutions of the nation and offers positively the best inducements for LIFE INSURANCE in the world. Over five hundred risks have been taken in the last twelve months upon the most influential citi seas of North Carolina. Out of this number four have died, making $23,000 in cash paid over promptly to survivors; and but for this forcthought and ACTION not one dollar would have been it of their estates for the benefit of their bereaved loved ones. After the 2nd year 50 per cent, Dividends is paid to Policy holders every year during Life, and at death the Policy is paid to survivors.

Risks on ages from 14 to 65 years are taken for a term of years or the WHOLE TERM OF LIFE on amounts from $1,000 to $10,000, and the rates are regulated according to age, THIS PROVI-SION CANNOT BE TAKEN FOR DEBT, BUT Mother, I love thy grave! Nothing can possibly be gained by delay in this duty and much may be lost. Of two courses, one of which may leave your family or dependent friends destitute, and the other ASSURES them a comfortable support at your decease; can there be a doubt which is to be chosen? Every one knows that if the pressure of the times bears hard upon a man in the fulness of his strength, it will be far more severe upon a woman and children left at such a conjuncture as this without re- By thee, as erst in childhood, lie. sources or protector, and it is easier for a man to pay his premium than for his family to live without his aid and without means.

BY MISS DRUSHLIA WORTH.

Gen. Bartow, of Savannah, commanded troops in Virginia. Before leaving home he was impressed with the belief that he would never meet his wife again. He was killed in making a charge at Manassas against the old New York Zonaves, and thus his presentment was verified.

Darling, come buckle on my sword, The parting hour has come. I hear the shrill notes of the fife, And spirit stirring drum.

Be brave, my bright, my beautiful.

My first and only love; God asks of us the sacrifice, But we will meet above.

One kiss, my own true hearted wife, Then bid your Bartow go, And seek amid war's deadly strife, To meet our country's foe,

Look up, my love, and smile once more-See yonder are my men, They must not see me falter now. Lest it dishearten tuem. No tears! but like Andromica

Go help to tend the loom, Yet never like her Hector will Your own true Bartow come. Farewell, and when the battle's o'er

Pray look among the slain,

And you will see the reason why I cannot come again. God shield thee from the coming wee, Shall be my constant prayer, Until He calls thee home above

I'll leave thee in His care. The boys are waiting I must go. Farewell, my own dear wife. This is the last I'll ever see Of thee again in life.

THE following poem was written by a you Southerner over the grave of his mother : The trembling dewdrop fall Upon the shutting flowers, like souls at rest : The stars shine gloriously, and all Save me are blest.

'Tis a sweet flower, yet must! Its bright leaves to the morning tempest bow. Dear mother, 'tis thine emblem-dust Is on thy brow.

And I could love to die, To leave untasted life's dark, bitter streams. And share thy dreams.

And I must linger here, To stain the plumage of my sinless years. With bitter tears.

Aye, I must linger here, A lonely branch upon a withered tree, Vhose last frail leaf, untimely sere, Went down with thee.

Oft from life's withered bower,

In still communion with the past I turn And muse on thee, the only flower In memory's urn. And when the evening pale Bows like a mourner on the dim blue wave. I stray to hear the night wind's wail Around thy grave.

Where is thy spirit flown?

I gaze above—thy look is imaged there—

Oh come while here I press My brow upon thy grave, and in those mild Bless, bless thy child!
